

C1 Level Vocabulary (30 Words with Simple Explanations)

Abandon: to leave something behind

Acquire: to get or obtain something

Adapt: to change to fit new conditions

Adequate: good enough or sufficient

Adjacent: next to something

Advocate: to support or recommend something

Allocate: to give or distribute resources

Ambiguous: having more than one meaning

Apparent: clearly visible or understood

Assess: to evaluate or judge something

Assume: to suppose without proof

Authority: power to make decisions

Benefit: an advantage or positive effect

Capacity: the ability to hold or do something

Challenge: a difficult task or problem

Clarify: to make something clear

Commit: to promise or dedicate yourself

Complex: having many parts or difficult

Conduct: to carry out or manage

Consistent: always the same or regular

Context: the situation or background

Contrast: to show differences

Contribute: to give or add something

Crucial: very important or necessary

Define: to explain the meaning

Demonstrate: to show clearly

Derive: to get something from a source

Distribute: to give out or spread

Enhance: to improve or increase

Establish: to set up or create something